

Indivior is providing the following statement pursuant to its initial statement dated November 27, 2020, related to a claim filed against it by Reckitt Benckiser Group.

Slough, United Kingdom and Richmond, Virginia, November 30, 2020 – Indivior PLC (“Indivior” or “the Company”), as an entitled party, has reviewed the claim Reckitt Benckiser Group (“RB”) filed against the Company in the Commercial High Court in London on November 13, 2020. At the present time, the claim has not been served on the Company. Indivior notes reported comments by RB, as published in The Times and Financial Times newspapers on November 27, 2020, that RB “regularly takes certain procedural steps to preserve potential claims.”

Based on the information available to it, Indivior strongly believes that the claim is without merit and that it has strong grounds for defending against the claim should it be served. If the claim is served, Indivior will fully and vigorously defend itself in any proceedings related to the claim.

Indivior will make further announcements as appropriate, including in relation to whether the claim is served.
